DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 30 and 31 stand withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention for the reasons of record.
2. Claims 7-29 stand withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention pursuant to the election without traverse in the response of May 28, 2003.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. (1) In claim 1, the third-sixth proviso clauses include in addition to compounds where R₁ is an elected heterocyclic group, nonelected aryl groups. Exclusion of the nonheterocyclic R₁ groups therefrom is required. (2) Claim 6 is an improper multiple dependent claim since it is dependent back to another multiple dependent claim (claim 3). Correction is requested.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102 Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 1624

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over any of the thirteen Chemical Abstracts references.

These abstracts disclose compounds not excluded by the proviso clauses of claim 1. Note particularly the heterocyclic groups in the compounds of the abstracts which correspond to the R¹ group of the present claims, and the substituted phenyl groups which correspond to the present R⁵ group. With respect to the third abstract, Knolle et al., while the cyanopyridinyl group is provisoed, it is not provisoed with the specific substituted phenyl groups of the reference compounds. Where not anticipated, one would be motivated to prepare the present compounds from within the genus of the references and/or to prepare the simple homologs and analogs of the specific compounds of the references with the reasonable expectation of obtaining additional useful pharmaceuticals. In the absence of a showing of unexpected properties, no patentable significance is seen in the present selection.

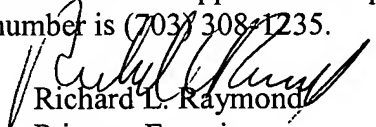

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
